Mexican American Bibliography:

SOURCES OF INFORMATION RELATING TO MEXICAN AMERICANS IN AUSTIN TEXAS IN THE AUSTIN HISTORY CENTER OF THE AUSTIN PUBLIC LIBRARY

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of the Austin History Center is to provide customers with information about the history and current events of Austin and Travis County by collecting, organizing, and preserving research materials and assisting in their use so that customers can learn from the community's collective memory.

The collections of the Austin History Center contain valuable material about Austin's Mexican American communities that is useful to researchers coming to the Center to locate information about people, places, events, and the history of the Mexican and Mexican-American communities in Travis County and Austin, Texas.

This 2004 update, created by Irene Gonzales, to the 1977 edition reflects the addition of many materials to the Austin History Center based on the recommendations and donations of many generous individuals and support groups.

The bibliography is arranged first by collection unit of the Austin History Center. Within each collection unit, items are then arranged in shelf-list order.

Researchers also find the card catalog invaluable to their research. The Austin History Center's card catalog supplements the online computer catalog by providing analytical entries to information in periodicals and other materials in addition to listing collection holdings by author, title, and subject. These entries, although indexing ended in the 1990s, lead to specific articles and other information in History Center resources that would otherwise be time-consuming to find and could be easily overlooked.

Significant gaps in the collection remain and continued work to fill the gaps is needed. In order to assist in building the collections, the final section of the bibliography lists "Under-documented Areas of Interest." This detailed listing of topics and people about which additional material is still needed at the History Center is intended to alert the public to these specific needs in the collection as well as inspire donations of materials.

The microfilm collection includes Travis County records as well as individual monographs, periodicals, and drawings.

Travis County Records

Information below provided from presentation given about Travis County records on October 10, 1991 by Michael Heskett, Local Records Division, Texas State Library

Assessors's Abstract of City Lots (1879-1974) [also called Travis County City Lot Registers]

The most valuable records in the collection for broad use can be used to show how neighborhoods have changed. Arranged by lot numbers (based on the original survey). Should be used in conjunction with the deeds and plat records from the county. These registers were used prior to the current Tax Appraisal District (1980)

Assessor's Abstract of Land (surveys) (1877-1936) [also called Travis County Land Registers/Travis County Assessor's registers] Rural counterpart to Assessor's Abstract of City Lots.

Automobile Register (1910 -1913)

Prior to 1917, counties instead of the State registered autos. Can be used as a guide to social status of citizens

Bond Registers (1887-1959)

Reliable guides to names of county office holders and school officials

Chattel Mortgage Records (1877-1954)

Can be used to study material culture of this area. Contains records of liens against personal property, including crop liens.

Claim Register scattered 1907-1977)

Used prior to annual audits to list persons the county owed money. Difficult to use.

Convict Labor Records (1897-1906, 1915-1916)

Prisoners loaned out by county to provide labor for private citizens. Eventually phased out.

Criminal Case papers (1890-1941)

Filed by case number. Case numbers obtained from indexes at the Travis County courthouse

CR Austin, Texas

Micfm Oakwood Cemetery

AuPuW Lists in alphabetical order the names of the interred at Oakwood and the State Cemetery.

Inquest Records from Justices of the Peace (dates vary from court to court, range 1887 to 1977)

Cases are listed chronologically, making it difficult to find a particular case without date of trial.

Marks and Brand Records (1840-1943)

Useful for research into cattle industry. All pre-1940 brands have been tendered null and void

Sanborn Fire Insurance Maps

Useful search tool for locating a particular building during a particular time, tracking the development and evolution of neighborhoods in Austin, and the changes to a property over time. These maps date from the late 19th century to 1989.

U. S. Census Office

7th Census 1850

9th Census 1870

10th Census 1880
